Mr. J. L. Collins, agent for Chess & Wyndham, has just returned from Louisville where he has been to deliver a large lot of staves. He is in the city the night of the great oil refinery burned, and says he never witnessed such a fire before. The firm did not delay business but a few days.

Spring.

Spring—beautiful spring with her warm fragrant breath and treasures of golden sunbeams, with her arms filled with the brightest jewels of nature's dainty casket, and her soft robes of pure emerald gliding over the hills and down the valleys, giving life, beauty and joy to where death, roughness and solitude joined the winter gale in his lonely sighs, has come. Here, there, and everywhere, the metamorphoses are perfect. Her magic touch has tempered the waters, shown their winds of their icy chilliness, cleared the earth with a carpet of green, mantled the trees with robes of beauty, and subdued the face of creation with jewels of every conceivable hue, balanced the spheres with perfumes of the most exquisite delicacy, and given life, joy and happiness to millions of the wild creatures of nature, who, in their gratitude, pour forth their songs of praise to Him who renews the seasons and fixes the destinies of all things.

Alexander's Hotel.

The western country boasts of the most elegant hotels in the Union, and among them the name of Alexander's Hotel, Louisville, Ky., stands conspicuous. There the traveler finds comfort and accommodation to his heart's content. Everything is first class, and no pains are spared to make the stay of guests agreeable and pleasant. The rates of charges are moderate, and the public will find Mr. Alexander a gentleman in every respect.

Our Greenville correspondent writes us the following particulars of the accident at the Mahoning Coal Mine, on the 24th inst. Mr. M. K. McKee, Al. McKee and Lattie were brought out dead. Several parties who went down in search of the bodies were overcome by the foul air in the mine, but were resuscitated on being rescued again to the fresh air. (Greenville Examiner.)

Miss Jessie Renner, returned last Thursday evening from a visit to Davies county.

One of the most pleasant and largely attended sales held during the winter, came off at Mr. Z. W. Griffin's last Friday night.

We notice Mr. John K. Williams is making quite a stir now with the Wilson Sewing Machine. Mr. W. is an agent of fine reputation, and parties trading with him may rest assured of honest, fair dealing. This machine is extremely popular, gives entire satisfaction, is supported by none, and can be bought on the best of terms.

Mr. Wm. C. Dorman, aged seventy-four years and his wife aged seventy-two years, died last week. There was but a day or two's illness in the date of their deaths—both taken with pneumonia and only living a few days.

A quick job of fencing was that put up for A. L. Morton by Mr. William H. Maunz. It is a neat substantial structure, and adds materially to the appearance of the square and to Mr. Morton's beautiful property. Mr. Maunz is a rapid and conscientious workman and keeps things moving around him.

To Whom it May Concern.

Those indebted to me for services of my horse "Stump the Dealer" for the year 1877, will confer a great favor on me by meeting me in Hartford, on the first Monday in April (Criminal Court day) and settle the same, as I am in great need of money.

HERMAN D. SHIMMER.

Criminal Court will convene at this place, next Monday. We would be glad to have those attending court to call and settle for the HERALD.

To Country Merchants.

Those who know Mr. W. S. Pate will be glad to learn that he will be at the Louisville Hotel, Louisville, Ky., for thirty days, from the 20th of March. Mr. Pate has an extensive reputation as a salesman of unimpounded integrity and liberality, and the firm he represents—Stix, Kruse & Co., Clothing merchants, Cincinnati, Ohio, one of the largest in the West.

The undersigned would say to those wanting a good Spring Wagon, that they would do well to call on him before purchasing elsewhere. FRANKS & FRANKS.

DAVID F. FRANKS.

W. N. Bayless, Louisville, will send an approval 4 ply linen colars, 15 cents each; 25 cents a pair; "Wamonts" unbuttoned shirts, 85 cents, and other goods in proportion. Order by mail.

We are glad to see on the streets again, our Post Master, Mr. C. J. Lawton, who has been confined to his room most all winter by second of illness.

We had the pleasure last Friday of a call by Mrs. Linnie Duke of Rockport, Ky. We welcomed her through the office and explained as best we could, the modes of our printing.

The cropnet season is now at hand and our sympathy goes out to those afflicted with "corns."

Mrs. Hayward, wife of James Hayward, living four miles above town, died last Tuesday.

The goodness of print office here was broken Monday evening by the presence of Misses Leona, Lizzie and Zerelda Johnson, of Pleasant Ridge, as visitors. They were laughing and carelessly were the cause of much pleasure and we hope they will remember us by another visit ere long.

THE HERALD.

Content on the Farm.

W. H. Ingalls, of Green county, New York, takes a philosophical view of farming. He is a correspondent of the Rural New Yorker, and thus addresses himself to that journal. My June pullets, thirty-five in number, commenced laying about the 1st of December and averaged about two dozen eggs each day until within three weeks ago when eggs went down. Then my poultry, thinking it did not pay for the wear and tear, dropped suddenly to three or four eggs a day. They have now recommenced laying abundantly and I shall consequently expect to see the egg market improve. I feed buckwheat, oats, corn and clover, and all they want, and plenty of clean water.

I keep ten cows, they have made two hundred pounds of butter since the first of December, are looking well and are coming in in March. I feed twice a day, once in the yard and once in the stable. I like to have my cows run in the day-time, unless stormy or very windy. I think cattle are stronger if wintered in this way. I feed corn-stalks and two quarts of Indian meal and buckwheat bran mixed; morning and at night, all the hay they will eat and the same feed of grain. I have farmed thirteen years and never had sick cow in the spring. My hogs get all surplus milk and I think do much better than if fed on clear grain.

I have seven hundred fruit trees, and to protect them from the mice in the winter, my little boy goes ahead with a jack and locates the ground, and then I follow with a hoe and clear from around the tree everything where mice can harbor, and pile around each tree a little mound of clear dirt about three inches high. Moreover, I take a wire and sharp knife along with me and clear out every grub. This work I do about the middle of September, and I am never troubled with either mice or grubs. My trees have been set from two to ten years, and in that time I have lost only one tree through the ravages of mice.

This, of course, requires some labor; but as some worthy has said, you can't get something from nothing. A little labor laid out at the right time, saves a good deal of money and trouble. I hate to lie awake at night and think that mice and grubs are undoing what I have tried to accomplish.

Now, just one word for the birds. I think they are my greatest friends. Nothing makes my children more happy than the return of these feathered wanderers. They are harbingers of the summer days, and they follow me I turn the furrow, and clean my land as well as the trees of all the pests they can get at. I have never been in the law business, but if I should see anybody on my premises shooting birds, I think I should give him a dose of Blackstone. I am happy in farming and think all farmers would be so, if they worked more and grumbled less.

Two hundred different varieties of fruit are grown successfully in Georgia.

AS THE BEST FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

Its competitors receiving only an award for some special feature of their machines.

The World-renowned Wilson Sewing Machine.

Has unlimited capacity to do all kinds of Family Sewing and Manufacturing.

ITS PATENT AUTOMATIC "WILSON" on the hand wheel prevents the machine from running backward, and obviates the necessity of taking the work from the machine to wind thread on the bobbins, which must be done with all other Sewing Machines, to the great annoyance of the operator, especially in tucking, hemming and ruffling. It does one-third more work in a given length of time than any other Sewing machine.

WITH EVERY MOTION OF THE FOOT THE MACHINE MAKES SIX STITCHES.

Three Wilson Machines will do as much work in one day as four other Machines.

It requires no special instructions to use it; an Illustrated Direction Book is furnished with each machine.

IT CANNOT GET OUT OF ORDER, AND THE ADJUSTMENTS ARE ABSOLUTELY PERFECT.

A properly executed Certificate is furnished with each machine, guaranteeing to keep it in repair, free of charge, for five years. Machines sold on easy terms of payment, and delivered, free of charge, at any Railroad Depot in the United States where we have no Agents.

Send for Illustrated Catalogue. Agents Wanted.

SAVE YOUR EYES.

OUR PEBBLE SPECTACLES.

And Eye Glasses are the best for failing sight. Cut and polished from the "Real Stone" they are perfectly transparent (not like a diamond). Being harder than the glass they receive a fine polish and always retain it. One pair carefully suited to your eyes will last as long as five pairs of the best glass, besides preserving the sight almost unimpaired at that time. By our new system for testing the eye, we are enabled to suit any eye so accurately that no injurious effects will follow. We repair Spectacles and Eye Glasses, and insert Pebbles or the best Glass Lenses in old frames. Our Bi-Focal Spectacles are for old people who require spectacles as far off as well as near by; only one pair being required. To persons who cannot call on us we send our new illustrated Price List which shows how to order.

Every body is invited to call at the College and examine the mode of instruction and the thorough and Practical Course of study the students receive. It is the only College in the West that is conducted on the ACTUAL BUSINESS PLAN. The patronage of young men and ladies wishing to obtain an education in a short time at a small expense is respectfully solicited. Time to complete the entire course is from three to four months.
